

ONE CENT--THE DAY BOOK--ONE CENT

THE DAY BOOK

WHAT IT IS

A live newspaper appearing in noon and last editions every day except Sunday.

WHERE YOU CAN GET IT.

From any news stand in the city, by mail if you live out of town, or by carrier to your front door.

WHAT'S IN IT.

All the live news of the date. Full wire reports of the United Press. Live sporting section and plenty of comics. A daily short story, editorial section and a public forum where everyone may have his or her say. News that will not be found in any other newspaper in Chicago. There's a reason. The other papers take ads. The Day Book doesn't.

THE PRICE OF IT.

One cent at all news stands. Thirty cents a month delivered to your home by a carrier. If you live out of town and get it by mail it is $3 per year.

THE WHY OF IT.

A live, convenient sized newspaper that carries all the real news for Chicagoans without fear or favor. Fair, fearless and friendly. Fits the hand. You can read it on a rush-hour car without jabbing your elbows into your neighbor's eye. Read The Day Book every night!

—o—o—
Mt. Clemens, Mich.—Driving auto at fifty miles an hour to hospital where his son was ill, Frank Carleton was instantly killed when tire blew out.

—o—o—
NEW YORK STOCKS.—Market dull.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

L. W. Hardy will speak tonight on the corner of Halsted and 64th sts., auspices 32d ward Socialists.

Mass meeting Garfield park, Sun., 3 p. m., to recognize second anniversary of war, express sympathy for war sufferers and discuss plans for peace. Talks by Rev. Irwin St. J. Tucker, Carl D. Thompson and Mrs. Laura D. Pelham.

"The Psychic Force in Music" will be discussed Sun., 11 a. m., 210 Masonic Temple, by Prof. H. A. Tolman, auspices International New Thought Fellowship.

H. Percy Ward lectures Sun., 11 a. m., Corinthian hall, Masonic Temple, "Confucianism."

General meeting of Public Forum Writers' Friendship league, Mon., 8 p. m., 162 N. Dearborn.

Debate, Prof. Wilkesbarre and Wm. Fine, "Should War Be Abolished?" Mon., 8 p. m., 162 N. Dearborn, room 306.

Watchmakers' union meets 180 W. Washington, Tues., 8 p. m.

—o—o— KILLED IN AUTO SMASHUP— OTHERS INJURED

Antonio Verderamo, 39, 5834 Wentworth av., barber, dead; his wife dying, three others injured, when auto driven by John McMurray, 21 W. 19th, overturned at State and 42d. Steering gear broke.

Henry Koepper, former near Niles, Ill., today found crushed to death under his auto at foot of embankment near his home.

—o—o— WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday; slightly cooler tonight; winds mostly gentle northeast. Temperature Friday: High, 87; low, 74.